Experience a behind-the-scenes tour of the magnificently restored Fox Theatre. This tour of the Fox Theatre showcases its exquisite beauty and extravagant architectural design. You will be awed by the six-story grand lobby, the 13-foot-diameter chandelier inside the auditorium and unique gold-embellished decorations from around the world! Explore the history of the fabulous Fox Theatre, which has hosted the world's biggest stars for more than 75 years. Learn more about the legendary acts who have graced our stage, including Frank Sinatra, Elvis Presley, Aretha Franklin, Jerry Seinfeld and the Radio City Christmas Spectacular!

After lunch, tour the magnificently restored Detroit Opera House, including backstage areas not accessible to the public. With the largest stage in Michigan, the Detroit Opera House is equipped to handle grand opera, classical dance, pop concerts, Broadway shows and even ice shows. You will be amazed to learn the techniques used to restore this historic venue!
