Step back in time for a joyful, laughter-filled comedy that celebrates friendship, memories, and the wonderfully unpredictable journey of life. Emma's Wedding is a brand-new play that follows Emma and her lifelong friends as they revisit her previous weddings, each one set in a different decade, leading to a hilarious and heartwarming trip through the '80s and beyond.

With plenty of nostalgic references, big hair, familiar music, and the kind of humor that feels both relatable and uplifting, this charming story reminds us that no matter how many twists life brings, true friendship is always worth celebrating.
