Start your day at Matthaei Botanical Gardens with a guided tour. Here you will discover the true beauty of nature. Your guide will take you through the conservatory which is filled with plants from around the world all year long. Also visit the herb and perennial gardens to learn about what is currently in bloom. Take some free time to explore on your own and maybe even find some inspiration for your own garden.

After lunch make your way to The Ann Arbor Farmers Market. The market is proud to bring fresh produce, farm products, prepared foods, and artisan items to the community. A 102 year-old institution, the producer-only market features 120 vendors from Michigan and Ohio. At the market you will find fruit, vegetables, herbs, flowers, plants, eggs, meat, cheese, bread, honey, maple syrup, cookies, donuts, pie, pastries, gluten-free baked goods, Polish food, Mediterranean food, hot sauce, pasties, sauerkraut, coffee, tea, jam, candles, jewelry, body care products, textiles, leathercraft, cutting boards, and more!

A registration form is required for all travelers
