Clare County is home to a large community of Amish, with roots going back to the original founders from Switzerland. The Amish way of life is one of simple enjoyment of the land and community. Skills are passed down through the generations. The Amish craftsmen are renowned for their finely crafted products including furniture, quilts and baskets.

The Yoders and their friends hold a large auction and craft show each spring. Large quilts are auctioned on Saturday. Imagine farm field transformed with rows of crafters, antiques and flea marketers hundreds of vendors in all! This event is one of the largest and well attended craft shows, flea markets and auctions in Michigan. In addition to the Amish crafted furniture, quilts and goods, one may purchase an array of arts and crafts items, discounted tools, jewelry, cutlery, jams and plants to name a few. Several food specialty tents, featuring baked goods and cheese, are hosted by the Amish women.
