What better way to welcome in the fall season than with a day dedicated to apples! Sauder Village will be highlighting this favorite fall fruit throughout the week with special apple-themed recipes in their historic homes and hands-on apple activities for all ages to enjoy. The aroma of apples and spices mixed with wood fires and falling leaves signals a change of season and apple butter making at Sauder Village. Produced in the fall as a way to preserve part of the apple crop, apple butter was historically a community project – bringing families and neighbors together each fall. Watch as they boil the cider down, add the thinly sliced apples and then cook the homemade apple butter in copper kettles over an open fire. There will be cider pressing, cooking demonstrations, and other apple-themed activities as well as homemade apple dumplings, pies and other treats to enjoy! Stop by the Doughbox Bakery to take home some delicious apple treats!
