Departure locations & itinerary are subject to change.

Clyde Heritage Museum - Discover the fascinating story of bootlegging and illegal liquor trade in Clyde, Ohio during the Prohibition Era as local history comes to life through exhibits and storytelling.

Geiger Building - Step inside this still-standing former "soda" brewery that secretly distilled liquor and distributed it through an underground tunnel, offering a glimpse into the town's hidden past.

Blue Collar Bistro - Enjoy lunch at this welcoming local favorite, a location long rumored to have once housed a speakeasy.

Kings Dairy Farm - See how modern technology is transforming agriculture as robots handle feeding, milking, and daily operations on this innovative family-run dairy farm.

Oak Haven Belgian Horse Farm - Tour the barn and meet beautiful Belgian draft horses up close while learning how these gentle giants are raised, trained, and shown at fairs and festivals.
