

GLASS CITY TOUR

Friday, September 27, 2024

$119

Per Person

In 1888, Edward Drummond Libbey, son to the owner of New England Glass, moved the company to Toledo, Ohio. He renamed the company to Libbey, thus creating a glass dynasty that still exists there today. Join us for a day out in Toledo where you'll visit some of Toledo's most iconic places and learn how Toledo came to be known as the "Glass City".

Libbey Glass Outlet: Visit the outlet store named after Edward Drummond Libbey, the key player in creating a glass dynasty in Toledo. The store offers 16,000 square feet of glassware, dinnerware, flatware, glass giftware, candles & accessories. A delightful place to shop for your home or for that special gift. Everyone gets 15% off!

Toledo Museum of Art: Explore a renowned institution boasting over 30,000 works of art displayed across 35 galleries, where you can immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of human creativity; don't miss the opportunity to witness captivating glass blowing demonstrations, a testament to the enduring allure of artistic expression.
