

DUNDEE, MI & TOLEDO, OH

Thursday, March 25, 2010 8:30 am - 6:00 pm

Hodge Podge (Progressive Dinner)

$69

Board the motorcoach and head south for a culinary experience along with visiting a myriad of things in the area. Begin with a stop in Belleville at the Senior Center for bagels and cream cheese and coffee and a Senior Craft shop. Then head to Dundee to Cabellas where you will learn how the store came into being and how the beautiful animals on display were acquired. You must be hungry by now, so go across the street to the Wilderness Cafe for some homemade soup and salad. Travel south again to Toledo and tour the historic West End. You will visit a private home as well as a church on the National Historic Registry. I suppose you are getting a little hungry again so we plan to stop at Georgios Cafe International for an entree. Now that your tummy is full again, you need to walk it off. . . so our next stop is at the Toledo Museum of Art. The museum features a world-renowned glass exhibit as well as some of the most famous paintings, prints, sculptures, and furniture in the world. From mummies to Matisse, a visit to the museum will thrill and excite the artist in you. One more stop and that is for some homemade dessert at Joe's French Italian Restuaruant in Monroe.
