Everyone is welcome. Please join us. This is serving as a pilot concert to see how many may be interested in participating in the 2010 and 2011 classical season. Today we will present next season's play bill along with the cost and restaurants, and ask if you would like to go get a season (8 concerts) ticket, like we do for the pops concerts. If we have about 20 interested, we will pursue the program.

Peter Oundjian leads the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in a program dedicated to Mozart and featuring his lyrical Vionlin Concerto No. 4, with Henning Kraggerud as soloist and the popular "Prague" symphony.
