A Humorous Look at His Life

$97

Friday, October 29, 2010
8:30 am - 5:30 pm

The Toledo Museum of Art Peristyle Theater welcomes Rich Little who stars in the tribute to his friend, Jimmy Stewart, with "A Humorous Look at His Life." You will also hear the voices of 25 other celebrities you know and love. Little is an American Treasure, impressionist. You will not want to miss this special one-man show as he brings famous characters to life! This theatre insures the finest in sight and sound. The show is at 2:00 pm.

I never give you enough time at the Toledo Museum of Art. Today, we will have 2 hours to visit the museum before lunch and the show. You will love the museum.

Rich Little was one of three sons of a physician. Little had a gift for impersonations since his school days and began performing professionally in night clubs at 17. He acted in Ottawa's Little Theatre and became a successful disc jockey who frequently incorporated impersonations into his show. Little was asked to audition for a new variety show for Judy Garland. Little's audition won him the job and he broke into American show business.

While Little is still a Canadian citizen, he resides in Las Vegas, Nevada where he performs regularly
