Step back in time for one of history's most extraordinary Christmas stories with All Is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914. This critically acclaimed musical tells the true story of the spontaneous ceasefire that occurred along the Western Front during World War I, when soldiers from opposing sides laid down their weapons to celebrate Christmas together.

Using authentic letters, journals, and firsthand accounts, the production brings this remarkable event to life through soaring vocal harmonies, traditional Christmas carols, patriotic songs, and heartfelt storytelling.

Both inspiring and thought-provoking, All Is Calm is a poignant reminder of the hope, compassion, and shared humanity that can shine even in the darkest of times.
